

TRADE WOMEN TO PLAN MEET MONDAY

Arrangements for a meeting of the Washington committee of the National Women's Trade Union League, to be held Monday evening in the National Museum, will be completed at the regular monthly meeting of the committee tonight at 8 o'clock in Waitresses' Hall, 719 Sixth street northwest. Miss Margaret Bondfield, fraternal delegate from the British Trade Union Congress to the Atlantic City convention of the American Federation of Labor, will speak at the Monday meeting.

A plan of action of local women union workers, in regard to the District school system, will be discussed tonight. Stress will be laid on the refusal of the District judges to recognize the wishes of the organized workers of Washington in their appointments to the school board. Miss Mary Anderson, chairman of the Washington branch of the league, will preside.

McKeagh—Muncaster.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Carter Muncaster, daughter of Dr. S. B. Muncaster, to John Anderson, McKeagh, of Montrose, Pa., recently honorably discharged from the service, took place last evening at 6 o'clock in the Sixteenth street home of the bride's father. The arrangements were very simple and only the immediate families and a few intimate friends were present.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Muncaster, and Benjamin McKeagh was his brother's best man. The two groomsmen were Seymour Davenport and William Welch.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown, with the point lace, an heirloom, and orange blossoms which adorned it. It was made with a train and was extremely effective and becoming. Her long tulle veil was held with orange blossoms, and she carried white sweet peas and spraythia arranged in a shower. Miss Edna Muncaster was in lavender organdy with a lavender picture hat and carried a shower of pink roses.

After the buffet supper the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip, the bride wearing a suit of dark blue serge with small blue hat. They will make their future home in Ray Point, Cal. The bridegroom and his attendants were all classmates at Cornell.

The marriage of Miss Florence Louise McDonnell, daughter of Dr. Emily Elmore McDonnell, to Alexander Gordon Hamilton, took place yesterday afternoon in the home of the bride's mother, 1630 Irving street northwest, the Rev. Henry Allen Tupper officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Ernest C. Morris, was becomingly gowned in an afternoon dress of white georgette with white georgette hat and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

A sister of the bridegroom, Miss Margaret E. Hamilton, who attended the bride as maid of honor, wore an afternoon gown of shell pink georgette with the same shade georgette hat, and carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas shading into lavender. Edward A. Rule acted as best man. Miss Ingrid Westerson played Mendelssohn's wedding march. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton left for a two weeks' wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Washington.
